The Parish Kitchen was invited again to participate in the Charity Night at the Tables, sponsored by the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce and Turfway Park on Saturday March 15th at 7:00 p.m. . .

This unique event consists of three separate parts; ticket sales, the Call to Post Luncheon horse selection, and the Lane's End Stakes race.

Eight local charities were invited to participate, with the opportunity to ultimately win $10,000.00 for their cause.

The following eight charities have been chosen as the 2008 participants:

- Education Alliance of NKY
- HealthPoint Family Care
- Kids Voting NKY
- New Perceptions, Inc.
- Parish Kitchen
- Senior Services of NKY
- Steinford Toy Foundation
- The Point/Arc of NKY

The charities are selling tickets for the event with the top three selling charities being invited to participate again next year.

Last year the Parish Kitchen sold over 80 tickets for this enjoyable event and qualified to be invited back in 2008 and guaranteed a minimum $3000 award to the Parish Kitchen.

We hope to sell enough to be invited back in 2009. Tickets can be purchased online or by contacting the Parish Kitchen. To qualify as a PK sale the tickets must be purchased before March 1st.

Tickets are $75 per person includes: grazing buffet, beer/wine/soft drinks, and play money for the gaming tables. Raffle with upscale items. Live Entertainment by "Off The Hook"

Online: www.nkychamber.com

Call: Ruth Eger at (859) 578-6388 or (859) 578-8800.

Please make sure to designate the Parish Kitchen as your charity.

Put Your Chips In The PK Pot

The evening consisted of players' using play-money to gamble in a casino type setting. During the evening, held in Turfway VIP tent, the event participants are encouraged to offer their winnings to their favorite charity. The "winnings" determined which charity gets first pick of the horses running in the Lane's End Stakes at the "Call to Post Luncheon". The charity whose horse finishes first (or best among the eight chosen) receives $10,000. The others received $3,000.00.

In addition to the gaming, there will be opportunities to purchase silent auction items and raffle tickets on a Six Day South African Safari, Delta Tickets for Two, Two week-long passes to the Ryder Cup, and a full-length coat from Fabulous Furs.

Volunteer Spotlight

We are grateful for our volunteers and all who make a difference each and every day in the lives of our guests and our fellow volunteers at the Parish Kitchen.

Today's spotlight shines on Pat Terlau.

Pat Terlau

Fifteen years ago, Pat came to volunteer at the Parish Kitchen as a substitute for her daughter. And she's been coming back to serve each Wednesday ever since. Pat enjoys the volunteers she works with and the guests she serves. "They all have such interesting lives. I enjoy being with them."

Isn't this a great picture of Pat? Notice the gloves she's wearing and that I've-got-the-dishes-covered look. She takes her work seriously – stay out of her way!

Pat also gives of her time to answer the phone at Catholic Charities on Monday mornings and Wednesday evenings.

The time Pat spends with us is a blessing as she has plenty of family to keep her busy.

Four children, nine grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren!

Perhaps if you stop in some Wednesday and Pat is not there, she may be in Hawaii, a favorite vacation spot. We hope she has the opportunity to travel back to Hawaii to enjoy the beauty of the island and to visit with her friends there.

Pat says, "You can count on me to keep coming back 'til I can't go anymore." And at her young 85 years, we look forward to each Wednesday when Pat arrives at the Parish Kitchen with her friendly smile and get-it-done attitude.

Thank you, Pat, for sharing your time and talents with us!

News and Notes

Warm Hands and Warm Hearts

Just before the extremely cold weather hit, Parish Kitchen had a call from Donna Salyers, owner of Fabulous Furs. She had over 800 pairs of gloves she wanted to donate to the various social service agencies. Donna is a very thoughtful and wonderful friend. We made arrangements to pick up and distribute them. The gloves were....cashmere. Our guests deserve cashmere gloves.

Thank you, Donna!

Christmas at the Kitchen

Christmas at Parish Kitchen was all that Christmas should be. We served 250 guests a beautiful dinner of roast beef with all the trimmings. The Boone Co. Jaycees volunteer one Sunday a month as well as every Thanksgiving and every Christmas. Thank you!

Santa was on hand to give a blanket to each adult and a toy to every child. Usually Santa has an elf to help him with the gifts. This year it was one of our guests, James. He did a superb job. We are so grateful to everyone who helped make this possible. You are as good as it gets!
